Hungry & Homeless Appeal continues

As we head into the more relaxed pace of summer, remember that for many in our communities, hard times are a year-round state of being.

Please continue to contribute to the Hungry & Homeless appeal. The funds that you provide help thousands through Westchester.

TIC / COMMUNITY EVENTS

On Tuesday, June 20, 7:30 pm, Jacob Burns Film Center in Pleasantville is partnering with the International Rescue Committee (IRC) to celebrate World Refugee Day. The movie After Spring will be shown followed by Q&A session. To purchase tickets go to <https://burnsfilmcenter.org/booking/after-spring/>

TIC Nursery School Camp 2017

Mahane Rishon—My First Camp for toddlers and incoming 2, 3, and 4-year-old children. Contact Nursery@templeisraelcenter.org

Shinshinim Program

This August, the Westchester community will welcome two Shinshinim (young adults doing a year of service). These High School graduates will spend their gap year working at TIC, other partnering synagogues and Jewish day schools before starting their mandatory military service in Israel. Please contact Michelle Kantor at kantorfamily@optonline.net for more information about the program and how to apply to become a host family.

TIC Brandt Family Mikveh
