EAT, PRAY, LEARN -- November 3

Join us on Friday evening November 3 as we welcome Shabbat, enjoy a delicious dairy dinner, and discover local author Noah Lederman, who will discuss his recent publication -- A World Erased. This poignant memoir, by the grandson of Holocaust survivors, transports readers from his grandparents' kitchen table in Brooklyn to World War II Poland. Together with his beloved grandmother he explores the memories that she had buried for decades. Services at 6 pm followed by dinner – the book talk will begin at 7:50. There will be supervised activities for children during the book talk. This program is in collaboration with the JCC of Mid-Westchester's Books on Tour. Dinner and the Book Talk: $15/adult; $10/child; Book Talk only: $5/adult for dessert & coffee -- reservations required online at TIC website.
